Unpatched â€œDenial of Serviceâ€• Vulnerability within ... Recently, Secunia Research discovered a â€œDenial of Serviceâ€• (DoS) vulnerability within Microsoft Windows. It is triggered through a stack exhaustion during the Type 1 font processing within the Adobe Type Manager Font Driver library (AMTFD.dll), which results in a crash of the Microsoft Windows operating system. In the frame: windows and skylights with a different ... A window is a window is a window. Or so you would think. But in many of these houses, the window was prevented from being yet another mundane ordinary opening fronted by menacing-looking grilles, and has been presented in different shapes and forms insteadâ€™most commonly, as a circular skylight.
